THE HONOURABLE SRI JUSTICE

A.GOPAL REDDY

W.P.No.4866 of 2005

Oral Order:

On cancellation of petitioner's authorisation of fair price shop dealership of Neelpally which was unsuccessfully challenged in appeal before the Joint Collector in CSI/1050/2004 filed W.P.No.2218 of 2005 before this Court which was disposed of on 10-02-2005 directing the 2nd respondent not to take any steps for appointment of a dealer in the place of the petitioner on regular basis for a period of four weeks, meanwhile petitioner can avail the remedy of revision. Accordingly he preferred a revision before the 1st respondent with an application for condoning the delay in preferring the revision and staying all further proceedings on 19-02-2005.

In the counter it is stated that on cancellation of the authorisation a notification for appointment of dealer was issued on 11-11-2004 inviting applications from the eligible persons fixing the date as 01-12-2004 to conduct interviews, but the interviews were postponed. Further, on dismissal of the appeal fresh notification inviting applications has been issued on 03-02-2005 fixing the date 28-02-2005 for conducting interviews. Meanwhile, this Court disposed of the above writ petition. In view of the orders passed by this Court in the above writ petition and on the instructions of the District Collector the appointment of fair price shop dealer has been withheld. It is also stated that the revision filed by the petitioner before the 1st respondent was dismissed on 15-07-2005.

Once the revision is dismissed, unless the same is challenged and necessary orders are passed staying appointment, there is no impediment to the respondents to appoint the fair price shop dealer as per the interviews held pursuant to notification dated 03-02-2005, which is the subject matter of challenge in the writ petition.

In view of dismissal of revision no further cause survives in the writ petition and it is accordingly dismissed. No costs.
